Thank You

To our class advisors, Ms. Jewett and Mr. Czermak, who led us through the past four years, we say thank-you from the bottom of our hearts. You'll never know how much we appreciated the extra measures you've taken to make our years here memorable ones. From our first fundraiser, to Prom, to graduation, you were there every step of the way. Our gratitude isn't enough for all of the hard work you've done for us.

We would also like to thank our yearbook advisor, Mr. Garrity, for his patience, good humor, and help in creating another successful edition of Memorabilia. Thanks to your commitment, we will forever have a piece of Clinton High School to remember.

For their endless dedication, strength, and support, we say thank-you to our guidance counselors, Mr. Mercado and Mrs. Buckley. To Mrs. DiMeco, thank-you for keeping us supplied with guidance slips and always being there to listen and aid us. Finally, thank-you to Mr. Gaw, Mr. Hastings, and all of the Clinton High School staff members for their knowledgeable advice over the past four years.

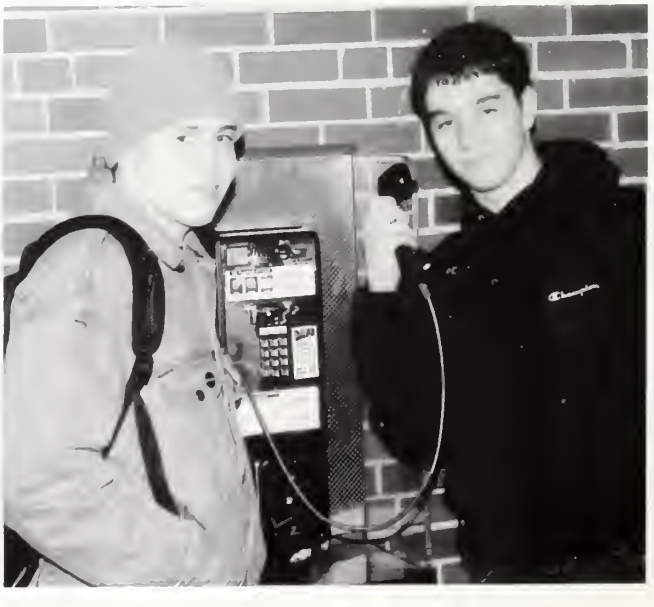
Freshman Year 2000–2001

The transformation from middle school to high school was a huge change for most of us. Although we sprouted from "dirt", with the help of our advisors, Miss Jewett and Mr. Czermak, and our class officers, Alan Waters as president, Kate Murray as vice president, Jessica Brodrick as treasurer and Shruti Sreepathi as secretary, we became full bloomed flowers in the following years.



Sophomore Year 2001–2002

As we entered our sophomore year we passed on the title of "dirt" to the incoming freshmen. In return we gained the title that will forever suit us perfectly "PRICELESS". We elected Matthew Johnson as president, Naomi Smith as vice president, Beth Nanof as secretary, and Jessica Brodrick as treasurer. The year flew by with the aid of our advisors Miss Jewett and Mr. Czermak. They assisted us throughout the year as we awaited our junior year.

Junior Year 2002–2003

We began our junior year with the long-awaited feeling of being "upper classmen". We elected Alan Waters as class president, Naomi Smith as vice president, Zachary Freel as treasurer, and Beth Nanof as secretary. Our homecoming was held on October 26, 2002 at the town hall, and the theme of the night said it all, "Nothing But A Good Time." On May 3, 2003, we held our junior prom, "Here's To The Night" at the Best Western Royal Plaza Hotel in Marlboro, which, as we hoped, was nothing short of perfection. At the close of our junior year we came to realize that the best of our high school days was yet to come.

Senior Year 2003–2004

On August 27, 2003, our long-awaited return as seniors finally came. We elected Alan Waters as President, John Sweatland as Vice President, Katie Ring as Treasurer, and Beth Nanof as Secretary. Since it was our last year at Clinton High, we did our best to make it memorable. Although the year flew by, our class became closer than ever.

Senior week activities began with the class trip on Tuesday, June 1, to High Meadows Resort in Connecticut. On June 2 our class banquet was celebrated on a cruise called Spirit of Boston. On June 3, baccalaureate was held in the high school auditorium. Finally, on June 5, 2004, the greatest day of our lives had arrived, and we were finally free.

STAY THE SAME

As time has changed and seasons have passed

We've developed a bond that will forever last.

As we say good-bye in this our final year,

We try to hold back those overpowering tears.

We remember those times that seem so long ago

As we grew up together through highs and lows.

We knew this day would eventually be here,

But had no idea of its overwhelming fear.

The years have flown by but the memories remain

These faces and names will always stay the same.

So as you go out into this world unknown,

Always remember there's no place like home.

Nothing But a Good Time

On October 26, 2003, the members of our class cordially invited the student body of Clinton High School to our Homecoming at the Clinton Town Hall. The night went well, and everyone was dancing, singing, and just having a great time. When our song "Nothing but a Good Time" by Poison was played, all the other classes left the dance floor to let our class have our moment in the spotlight. The evening highlight was the crowning of Whitney Boston as queen and David Carnes as king.

Queen and Court (L.-R.) Lindsey Forkey, Patria Jiminez, Beth Nanof, Kate Murray, Laodice Espinosa, Shruti Sreepathi, and Queen Whitney Boston.

Here's to the Night

Our dream of the Junior Prom finally became reality on May 3, 2003. After months of planning and a day of preparation, our magical night arrived at 7:00 pm. Our cars and limousines lined the parking lot of the Best Western Royal Plaza Hotel in Marlboro. We danced to our favorite songs, and at the night's end Jennifer Cordon was crowned Queen and Samuel Alfred was crowned King.

Spirit Week

Although we didn't succeed in dominating the other classes during our years at CHS, we did finish second this year and experienced enjoyable times and lasting memories. We swept the tug-of-war, the scooter race, the three point shot, and the obstacle course. Our Tiki-Hut was the envy of every class.

Senior Hop

The Senior Hop was held on March 27, 2004, at the Clinton Town Hall. Alan Waters and Ashley Kenney were selected as King and Queen. Knowing that it was our last formal dance together, we enjoyed it to the fullest. Our theme was "Dancing in the Moonlight." The night passed so quickly that we were sorry to see it end.

Excel

The Excel Club under the direction of Terrance Ingano was created in 1997 to provide students with service opportunities in the community. This year Patria Jimenez was elected President; Amanda Brisbois, Vice-President; Stephanie Johnson, Secretary; and Kyle McElheney, Treasurer. The club grew to ninety members this year, the largest in its history. Some of the activities included the Annual Halloween Party at the Town Hall, collecting clothing for "Make a Difference Week," two food drives at Shaw's (netting 740 and 500 pounds of food for the needy), collecting over sixty boxes (with the National Honor Society's help) for Operation Christmas Child, attending the Harvest Ball at the Corcoran House, and the Annual Winter Social for Senior Citizens.

F.I.R.S.T.

Six weeks seemed to last a lifetime for the members of Gael Force. The team built its robot for the 2004 season in Nypro's Methods Development Center where they not only created a reliable machine but also memories that will last forever.

Team 126 earned an alliance with schools from Rhode Island and New Hampshire in its first regional but was eliminated in the semi-finals.

In its second regional in Connecticut, the team ranked fifth of thirty-eight competitors and reached the finals. Although not the victor, the team was awarded the General Motors Industrial Design award. This is given for a versatile machine that shows innovative design and needs few repairs throughout the competition. The unique and multitalented Gael Force robot fit the description perfectly. The team eagerly awaited the Nationals.

The Championship Event was held in the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The team won six of seven matches in the qualifying rounds and was seeded second of seventy-three. Team 126 and their alliance partners from Michigan and Texas reached the quarterfinals before they were eliminated from the competition.

The Gael Force students and mentors returned home proudly, knowing that they had a great robot and a great team.

Football

After four super bowl victories, the Gaels' fortunes turned sour this year for the first time in many years, and the team had a losing record, finishing 4-6. After opening losses to Nashoba and Hudson, the team won three of its next four games and seemed to be righting itself. However, a three-game stretch without scoring a point doomed the Gaels to a losing season. It would have been a disappointing ending for the seniors had they not defeated Maynard on Thanksgiving Day. After trailing 6-0, three straight scores gave the squad a 22-6 lead at half time and the eventual win. The Captains were Jeff Learned, David Neeley, and Nick Wong. The other seniors were David Carnes, Brendan Cote, Matt Downing, Jimmy Fancy, Zack Freel, Tyler Hamilton, John McNamara, Luke Nickerson, Brendon O'Malley, Pat Quill, Kevan Spoor, John Sweatland, Joe Vosburg, and Alan Waters.

The team was led by their only two seniors and endured a tough season which was a learning experience for the young squad. The on the field experience and senior leadership of Colin DeLeo and Kyle Duffy allowed the Gaels to remain competitive. The season also featured two great firsts for the senior duo. Both were defensive standouts who moved to offense and scored their first goals of their CHS soccer career. However, the team finished the season at 0-17-1.

Volleyball

This season was one that was filled with many surprises and successes. Looking over the four years that the seniors have played made us realize that they have come a long way. With Captains Naomi Smith and Maylene Collado leading the team to the best season it has had in many years, the team knew that the districts were a great possibility. Even though the girls missed the districts by one game, they tried their best and were glad they had made it as far as they did. The team's strong friendships on and off the court are one of the reasons why they were so successful.

Girls' Soccer

The girls' soccer team was led by Coach Bill Winn and senior Co-Captains Kate Murray and Maya Pagoaga. The other seniors that carried the team were Jennifer Cordon, Cara Alessandrini, and Sadie Burzenski. One of the highlights of the season was tying our arch-rival Tahanto twice and also making districts. The squad was defeated in the first round by Northbridge (6-0) but was content with the fact that they were the first to make the districts since 1995. The season ended with an overall record of 9-7-2 and a league record of 6-4-2.

Kelly DeLeo, Amanda Cummings, and Mary Beth Ball made all-star. Kelly DeLeo also made Central Mid Wach D, and Amanda Cummings received an honorable mention.

Field Hockey

In the beginning, the doubts were high. No one ever expected the season to be nearly as successful as it was. With 12 seniors lost to graduation, Captain Beth Nanof along with fellow seniors Stacy Baird, Patria Jimenez, Melissa Morales, Jessica Rebokis and Katie Ring stepped up to the challenge and started training in August. Coached by Caesar DiTullio and Susan Notaro the team ran hard, endured practice, and played tough.

They overcame setbacks and stuck together as a team, beating rivals such as Groton-Dunstable and Lunenburg. With one of the best records in years of 9-6-3 they qualified for Districts. On October 30, 2003, the Lady Gaels played Oxford at home. The first half of the game ended in a tie. However, their luck changed in the second half, and they were defeated 3-0. They did not win, but could still walk off the field with their heads held high because they played with all their hearts. Goalie Katie Ring, Beth Nanof, Stacy Baird and Ally Mack were named Mid-Wach C All-Stars, and Beth Nanof was also named Mid-Wach C Co-MVP.

The team was led by senior Captain Pat Hardy, along with fellow seniors, Alan Waters, Nate Stephenson, Moises Figueroa, Javi Medina, Luke Nickerson, Chris Chrispin, and Rod Rodriguez. Although they finished the season with an overall record of 6-12, they played very well, losing three games by a margin of four points or less. For the first time in five years, they qualified for the Districts with a 10-10 record, where they were defeated by Oakmont 61-31. Jenna Lipka and Courtney Laverdure were named League All-Stars.

Baseball

This season proved to be a successful one as the team finished with a 12-8 record and a berth in the Districts. With good coaching from Bernie Gaughan and strong leadership from co-captains Dave Neeley and Luke Nickerson and their excellent pitching records the Gaels were able to win many close games. Other senior contributors were Jeff Learned who batted .528 for the season, John Sweatland, and Steve McNally.

The Gaels won their first playoff game against Douglas by a 3-2 score, but were eliminated in the quarterfinals by Hudson Catholic 5-3.

Softball

Three seniors, Captain Jenna Lipka, Beth Nanof, and Melissa Briner, led the team to a 13-5 record and a district berth. Mary Beth Ball had a great year pitching, and the team had many clutch hits which allowed them to win many close games.

The Lady Gaels opened tournament play against Bartlett, but after an early lead the team lost a heart-breaker by a 5-4 score.

Boys' Track

The team used its youth and leadership from eight seniors to compile a 4-5 record. The senior members were Sam Ceballos, Colin DeLeo, Kyle Duffy, Tyler Hamilton, Brendon O'Malley, Pat Quill, Alan Waters, and manager Kevan Spoor. The team started 0-3 but finished 4-2. Five qualified for the district meet. Alan Waters, Chadd Baer, Kyle Duffy, Angel Martinez, and Zack Wallace represented the Gaels with Waters and Duffy also qualifying for the state meet. The team finished fifth in the league meet.

Girls' Track

The team had a respectable 2-6 record in the Midland League. The seniors were Kate Murray, Naomi Smith, Hailey Farris, Maya Pagoaga, Ashley Kenney, and Melissa Morales. Kate Murray set a CHS record in the triple jump with a distance of 32'3½", and Ashley Kenney continued her two year domination as League Discus Champion. With the graduation of seniors, a large hole will be left to fill by many competent underclass candidates.

Boys' Volleyball

In its first year as a member of the Mid-Wach Volleyball league, the team finished with a 7-13 record and a 3-9 league record. The senior captains were Matt Downing and Brad Kulis, both of whom had played since their freshman year. Jake Smethurst and Kyle Andrejczyk were the other valuable senior contributors. With many talented underclassmen the outlook for next season seems bright. The team celebrated the end of the season with a night out at a Chinese buffet.

Tennis

The team showed great improvement over last year's winless record by finishing with a 3-9 mark. Even though all matches were away, the team improved as the season progressed. With only one senior, Sylvia Ndiritu, the hopes for next year are positive. Kali Hogan finished the season with a 13-1 mark and was named by the league as the MVP. Kali and Lauren Kilcoyne were selected for the Districts. Lauren lost her first round match, but Kali won her first two rounds before being defeated by the eventual tournament winner.

National Honor Society

The fifty-fourth annual National Honor Society induction was held on May 4, 2004, in the CHS auditorium. Matthew Downing acted as the Master of Ceremonies for the event, introducing Naomi Smith, President of the local chapter, to welcome those in attendance. The other officers were Sam Ceballos, Vice-President, Jessica Brodrick, Treasurer, Shruti Sreepathi, Secretary and Kate Murrary, Historian.

Patria Jimenez opened the induction by lighting the main candle, the symbol of the National Honor Society. The remaining four candles that represent the four tenants of the organization, character, scholarship, leadership and service, were lit and explained by Kate Murrary, Shruti Sreepathi, Beth Nanof and Brad Kulis.

The Rotary Club then sponsored a dinner for the senior members at the Manor Restaurant in West Boylston.

The Last Day of School

The day so many of us anticipated arrived on Friday, May 28, 2004. After twelve years of excitement, disappointment, satisfaction and frustration, we were free either to pursue our education, begin a career, or receive training for future employment.

Although some of us saw this day as an end, most viewed it as the beginning of a new adventure which would shape our lives into the successes we hoped they would be. We appreciated the assistance of all those who helped us to reach this moment. We will do our best to fulfill the hopes and dreams of those who encouraged us throughout the years.

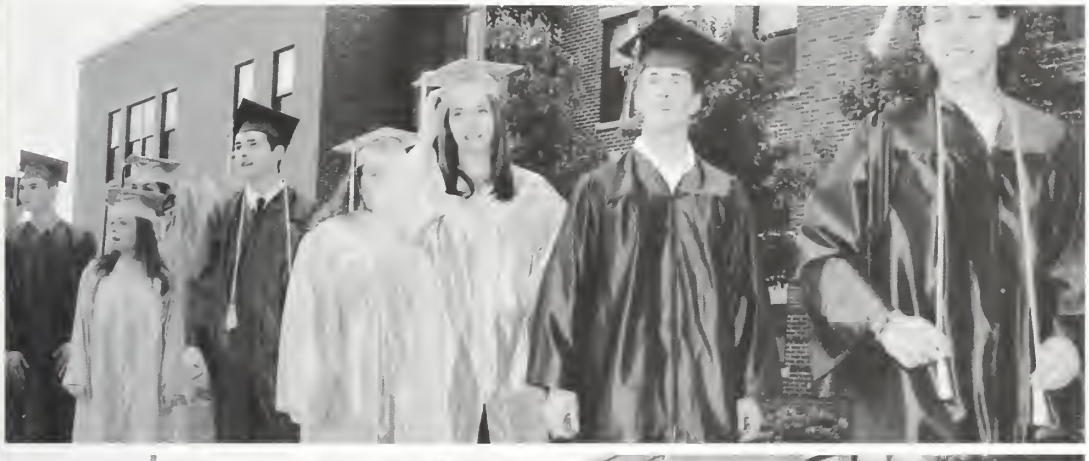
Forever Young

Baccalaureate

On Thursday, June 3, baccalaureate exercises were held in the CHS auditorium. Class President Alan Waters served as Master of Ceremonies, introducing guest speaker Sheila Daly, a former CHS graduate. She spoke of the finality of our days at CHS and advised us to reflect on all of the fond memories we had created together.

The evening concluded with the singing of our class song "Forever Young" and "God Bless America" which was followed by a reception in the cafeteria.



Class Trip

On Tuesday, June 1, the overcast skies couldn't dampen the spirit of those who decided to brave the chilly temperatures to attend the class trip to High Meadows in Granby, Connecticut. The endless supply of food kept us going throughout the day as we explored local trails on horseback, revolved on gyro machines, and entered dance contests. Others competed in tennis, basketball, softball, and bocci ball. The heartiest found the pool water a warm place to relax. With a snack for the road, we arrived home full, tired, and with memories of a great time.

Activities for the Day

Class Banquet

On Wednesday, June 2, one of the most anticipated events of Senior Week became a reality as we boarded the "Spirit of Boston" for a dinner cruise and dance in Boston Harbor. Both the students and their chaperones enjoyed a fabulous meal and an evening of dancing on the ship's lower deck. The skyline of Boston was a sight many of us will remember for a long time.

Graduation

On June 5, 2004, we took a short walk from the Town Hall to Central Park to make one of the biggest steps in our young lives: our graduation. We listened to Mr. Philbin, Mr. Gaw, and Mr. Hastings while reflecting on our years at Clinton High, especially our final year.

Valedictorian Shruti Sreepathi and High Honor students Dulce Rodriguez, Brad Kuhs, and Kyle Andrejczyk delivered the main addresses.

After receiving our diplomas, we stood ready and eager to take the next step of the journey to success and fulfillment as graduates of the Clinton School System.

How quickly time posses. Only a short time ago it seemed we were planning fundraisers, organizing Spirit Week activities and preparing for the Homecoming, Prom & Hop.

Now as you stand on the threshold of your future, we hope you've gathered the wisdom and developed the tools necessary to boldly pursue your destiny with enthusiasm and purpose.

We wish each of you courage to aspire to your highest dreams, strength for the journey, joy along the way and a willingness to pass lessons learned to those who follow.

Godspeed graduates of 2004!

Ms. Jewett & Mr. Czermok

Thank you to the yearbook staff, Beth and Jenna, Karen, Jess, Maya, Shana, Stacy, Alicia, and Sean, for a wonderful job in preparing this edition of Memorabilia. Your hard work and perseverance, even when someone was telling you to do it over again, have paid off. You have a lifelong memory that only you created. May your successes of the past be minuscule to those of your future.
